Weights Room:

Due to Health and Safety regulations, and the terms of the lease we have from the Council, all users of the Weights Room must be full members of BAC, and, with some exceptions, hold a current season ticket. A copy of the full guidelines can be found in the gym or in the office and on the club website.

Training Fees:

As well as your Membership fee, you need to pay a training fee for use of the Kings Park track. This can be paid at each Club session, or you can buy a Season Ticket to cover your training fees for the whole year (a considerable saving if you are intending to train on the track regularly).

Training Fees:

Members, per session:	Senior	£3.00	Junior	£2.50
Non-members, per session	Senior	£5.00	Junior	£4.00
Season Tickets:	Senior	£120.00	Junior	£75.00

Season Ticket conditions

Season Tickets entitle the holders to train on the track at Kings Park during the periods booked by Bournemouth Athletic Club (unless the purpose of the booking is inconsistent with individual training) without further payment provided the holder can produce his/her Season Ticket on request by an official of the club. Season Ticket holders may also use the Kings Park track at other times provided it is not in use by any other organisation, and provided the holder can produce his/her Season Ticket on request by Council Staff. If it cannot be produced the holder will be required to pay the current Council fee for use of the track.

You can pay by cash or cheque (payable to "Bournemouth Athletic Club").

Please return completed forms and payment with a s.a.e to; Membership Secretary, Bournemouth Athletic Club, Kings Park Athletic Centre, Kings Park Drive, Bournemouth BH7 6JD. (Alternatively, forms and payments may be left during training evenings at the office for processing later)

Membership is available to all athletes from the age of 8 upwards and casual members who may be supporters, officials or coaches. Membership is open to all members of the community regardless of age, race, gender or disability.
